

Course name: Cultural History I.

Course code: YAXCUH1MNF

Hours per week: 3 lecture / 1 practice / 0 laboratory; E: exam / 5 credits

Department of the Built Environment

In charge: Dr. Nagy Gergely

For students of MSc in Architecture

Pre-requirements for Erasmus students: none

OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE:

Aim of the subject is to give a broad understanding of the European and Hungarian history of architecture, and to deepen the knowledge of the correlation between architecture and culture. The above is introduced through the case study of Budapest.

14 WEEKS SCHEDULE:

1. week: Semester's tasks and information Architectural styles – structures, forms, periods - overview
2. week: Semester's tasks and information Architectural styles – structures, forms, periods - overview
3. week: Hungarian History of Architecture 1
4. week: Hungarian History of Architecture 2
5. week: Workshop week, no lesson
6. week: Field Trip 1
7. week: Historicism 1: Basic information, Andrassy Avenue
8. week: Historicism 2: apartment houses
9. week: No lesson
10. week: Field Trip 2
11. week: 20th century Hungarian Architecture
12. week: Socialist Realist Architecture
13. week: LAST CONSULTATION
14. week: Presentations, closing of semester

Assessment:

Midterm assignment and exam

