

Course name: History of Architecture IV.

Course code: YARÉPT4BNF

Hours per week: 2 lecture / 1 practice / 0 laboratory; Exam/ 6 credit

Precondition for Erasmus students: 2 semester Architectural History

In charge: Prof. Klein Rudolf PhD, DSc

OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE:

The course aims to enable the students to understand architecture, analyse space and form, function and structure. This course is tailored to the needs of architectural design by approaching eminent pieces of architecture from the viewpoint of function, building type and urban context. In addition, the course facilitates individual research, use of sources, libraries, electronic sources, it encourages team work of students, student initiative in the practical research work and in presentation of the obtained data.

14 WEEKS SCHEDULE

1. week: Museums I (Buildings designed to be museums)
2. week: Museums II (Buildings designed for other purposes adapted later to be museums)
3. week: Non-conventional museums, museum gardens
4. week: Theatres I
5. week: Theatres II
6. week: Concert halls
7. week: Modern churches and memorial places
8. week: Townhalls, office buildings
9. week: Buildings of education
10. week: Buildings of traffic I (airports)
11. week: Buildings of traffic II. (railway stations)
12. week: Buildings of tourism
13. week: Housing
14. week: Historic summary of the evolution of building types

Assessment:

Visual tasks plus exam